

National Historic Site of Canada

Criteria:

A place is designated of national historic significance by virtue of a direct association with a nationally significant aspect of Canadian history. An archaeological site, structure, building, group of buildings, district, or cultural landscape of potential national historic significance will:

- a) illustrate an exceptional creative achievement in concept and design, technology and/or planning, or a significant stage in the development of Canada; or
- b) illustrate or symbolize in whole or in part a cultural tradition, a way of life, or ideas important in the development of Canada; or
- c) be most explicitly and meaningfully associated or identified with persons who are deemed of national historic importance; or
- d) be most explicitly and meaningfully associated or identified with events that are deemed of national historic importance.
